DOMINION RIVERROCK ANNOUNCES MUSIC LINEUP FOR ANNUAL OUTDOOR SPORTS AND RIVER LIFE FEST

BIG GIGANTIC, PERPETUAL GROOVE, & YONDER MOUNTAIN STRING BAND TO HEADLINE

RICHMOND, VA (March 17, 2011) – Sports Backers and Venture Richmond announced today the featured music acts for this year’s Dominion Riverrock festival. On Friday, May 13th Big Gigantic will perform, followed by Perpetual Groove. And on Saturday, May 14th, Yonder Mountain String Band will perform as the headlining act. The third annual sports and river life festival will be held on Brown’s Island in Richmond, VA May 13-14, 2011. All concerts are free and open to the public.

“Rowdy boy” Colorado-based duo Big Gigantic is set to play Friday night at 7:15 p.m. immediately following performances by local Richmond opening acts. With Dominic Lalli on the saxophone and Jeremy Salken on the drums, Big Gigantic creates upbeat, electronic music that brings the crowd to its feet.

Immediately following Big Gigantic, Perpetual Groove (or PGroove), the jam band known on the circuit for its famed melodic tunes with highly personalized lyrics, will take the stage at 9 p.m. PGroove incorporates a blend of traditional Southern rock, funk, jazzy improvisation, indie rock and synth loops to create a live blend of pulsating dance beats and deep grooves.

On Saturday night, Yonder Mountain String Band is set to wrap-up Dominion Riverrock with a performance at 9 p.m. YMSB blends bluegrass, rock, and other influences to create a sound of its own.
